Foreword

Young America--faces the world. Completing another year of their education, the students of W.P.C.S. in 1953-1954 have not failed to realize the great opportunities and responsibilities that every citizen of this great land must assume. These students have come to school eager to face the future and to prepare themselves for it regardless of the outcome.

ADMINISTRATION

SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL CARYL E. ADAMS

Principal

To the Seniors,

Congratulations to you on your graduation. You have been one of our outstanding Senior classes and you deserve every credit, honor and commendation which has come your way.

You are Young America growing up. You will soon realize that you, too, are going to have to share the burdens of a troubled world. I cannot offer you a bright and shining future in a world that is uncertain, and fearful, full of prejudice and indifference. Yet, there are many sincere, honest and hard working people still trying to keep America the home of the free and the land of the brave. Join with them, stand tall, think tall, and together you may help to make the world into a better place for those who are to follow.

Caryl E. Adams

MRS. GRACE TICKNOR

Dedication

Young Americans, for many years, have known the able guidance of Mrs. Grace Ticknor. Mrs. Ticknor has instilled the essence of good citizenship into the hearts and minds of all who have come in contact with her.

To Mrs. Ticknor, for her unselfish devotion to her work and to her students, we the pupils of W. P. C. S. wish to dedicate this 1954 edition of the Maroon and Gold.

Office

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

Members of the Board of Education are elected by the people and serve without pay. They spend many evenings working on school problems in order that Whitney Point Central School may constantly improve in every respect.

With the increasing school population each year theirs is an ever present problem to provide educational facilities for all.

Meeting once a month the Board of Education has been working with the contractors since last spring to get the new addition completed.

MR. OSMER BROOKS

Together with teaching two classes daily--Business Law and Bookkeeping, Vice Principal Osmer Brooks keeps the internal accounts of school funds.

MRS. EVELYN STORRS

Throughout the school year Mrs. Evelyn Storrs performs her duties as secretary to the Principal and handles the many requests of the students.

'Get those confounded things off!'

MEMENTOS OF "SPRING GREEN"

'I can't throw them away, I thought I'd found somebody who was interested.'

'There wouldn't be any world if it weren't for the earthworm!'

'O Romeo, Romeo! Wherefore art thou Romeo?'

Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery.

Dear Mr. Adams,

Through our years at W. P. C. S. we have been aware of the quality of the Principal of our school. We have noticed the patient understanding when we have wandered from the beaten path.
When we entered 7th grade we were a wild, undisciplined class. However, under the guidance of our beloved Principal, we learned good manners and courtesy.
At times we seem to forget both of these, but by taking our Principal for an example, we remember.
In the years to come these things will not be lost and we will remember Mr. Caryl E. Adams, Principal of Whitney Point Central School-

MAROON and GOLD

Work on the 1954 yearbook began as soon as the homeroom pictures and the Senior portraits were returned from Mr. Foster Disinger. Co-Editors, Linda Richards and Sue Gehm along with their staff made the vari-typer jump day in and day out to complete the work before the last of February. David Ward was responsible for the sports section; DeLores Pendell and Dick Glezen with an assist from Johanne Gonciasz and Pat Gorham for the art work. The editors wrote the dedication, closing, and the letter to Mr. Adams. The school photography club took all the pictures except those done by Mr. Disinger. The Sophs sold subscriptions and the Juniors sold ads and worked on the advertising section. Mrs. Tressa Corcoran, adviser, did all the jobs no one else wanted. Last but not least, Mr. Osmer Brooks, along with being financial adviser, spent many trying hours in the conference room repairing the vari-typer.

POINTER WEEKLY

The Pointer Weekly, published by the staff, has missed the Thursday deadline very few times in 1953-1954. Eileen Stoughton, Gail Glezen, Betty Sears, and Sylvia Quarella, editors for a 10 week period, contributed much to the output of 424 copies each week. The reporters have all done a fine job of reporting all phases of school live. To these people goes the credit for the "Pointer Weekly."

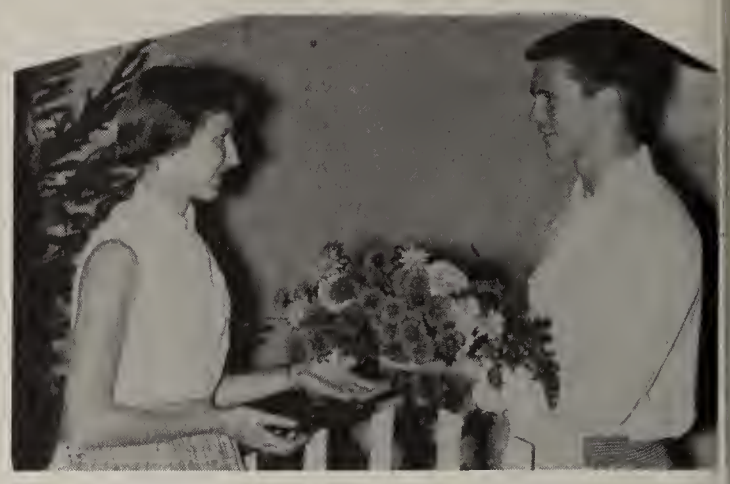
Senior Play

'Come on--lets have dinner.'



'I brought a peace offering.'

''YOUNG APRIL''

''Young April'' was the play chosen for presentation by the Senior Class. This delightful play was written by Aurania and William Spence Rouverol and published by The Samuel French Publishing Company. Seven long weeks of rehearsal ensued before the play was finally produced in the W.P.C.S. Auditorium on the 9, 10, and 11 of December. Approximately 300 dollars profit was accumulated. Many favorable comments were received by the class for the unusual set which consisted of an outside patio.

'Well, hello! Had to hitch-hike my way home.'

'Happy Birthday, dear Georgy, Happy Birthday to you.'

Young April

'I had to see you, I've been so upset.'

''This is the first I've known of your engagement--if you are engaged''

''He won't go--he's sulking.''

VARSITY

Whitney Point didn't set the league on fire this year of 1953. They did cause a little trouble by winning three games but they dropped seven, which was a far cry from the good season they had the year before.

John Glezen and George Altavilla represented the team at Greene in the all-star game.

In the only non-league affair the Point was victorious over Marathon, in this game, however, Al Reed and Lou Tingley collided, with Al suffering from a broken nose after the dust had cleared.

FOOTBALL

The football team did its best this year but just could not overcome the handicap of a small squad. Coach Halloran's boys, however, dropped only two games, one by 1 point, but epidemic of polio in Walton, the league had to decide the championship. Pudge Gurney, the big Senior lineman, was voted captain of the '53 squad by fellow players before the Sidney game.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

For the first time in four years Whitney Point did not send a team to the championship game. They did, however, come within one point and one game of going, but, as fate would have it the Point lost to their old arch rivals Sherburne, 57-56, in a play-off game at Greene. All-in-all, though, the Maroon and Gold had a fairly successful season. It was the only team in the ''Sus'' league to have hit 100 points in a single game. Johnny Glezen, by his consistent hitting, maintained one of the best scoring records ever handed in by any player in this league. He averaged 30 points a game in league play.

Look out, Larry, not too close!

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

The J. V.'s did not have a highly successful year, but they did cause trouble to whomever the played. The boys gained a lot of valuable experience, which will help them next year when they have to fill the sneaks of all the boys who will be leaving.

TRACK

Coach Halloran guided the track team to one of its best records. The team had quite a lot of competition during the season taking part in the Class 'B' meet at Oneonta where they placed eighth, a meet at Cincinnatus where six schools participated and the Golden Eagles took second, Class 'B' trials at Cortland S.T.C. where 14 schools took part and the Point came away with second place.

In a dual meet with Homer the thinclads took first by a very small margin. The boys met Harpursville and Afton and came out the victor. Greene and Oxford were their next victim and they again showed their stuff. In the All League meet at Greene the boys placed fifth which is still a pretty good position. Bob Roe was the chief point maker with his league sending marks in the high jump and his good pole vaulting.

In the intramural meet at the close of the year the class of '54 walk away with a very lopsided victory.

LISLE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
ESTABLISHED 1797

Young Americans in their constant search for truth and justice have found the answer to most of their problems in their regular visits to the churches of the Central District.

In picking the oldest church in Broome County as a symbol of all other churches of the district, the Maroon and Gold hereby dedicates this page in recognition of all that the churches have meant to the students as they go through their daily activities in search of a fully rounded education.
